

2023 SUMMIT AGENDA

THURSDAY 21 SEPTEMBER

IET Birmingham: Austin Court, 80 Cambridge St, Birmingham, B1 2NP

2023 SUMMIT VENUE

IET Birmingham: Austin Court, 80 Cambridge St, Birmingham, B1 2NP

By Tram

The tram journey time is approximately five minutes from Grand Central station. The tram will depart from the Grand Central Midland metro stop, where you head towards the Library stop.

West Midlands Metro will generously be providing a free two day tram pass via their MyMetro App. To claim your free pass, download the MyMetro App and request a code from Dan or Lorraine to redeem your free pass.

Parking

There is very limited parking at IET Birmingham: Austin Court.

If the car park is full, the nearest parking is at the National Indoor Arena. It is Pay-and-Display.

There is limited street parking (meters) in side streets opposite the NIA, also on the south side of Broad St (A456).

Other car parks are just past the Birmingham Rep between Cambridge St and Broad Street, and at the end of Cambridge St at the junction of Summer Row (A457), the entrance is in Brindley Drive.

Drinks Reception/Networking, 16:00 - 18:30

Please join us for a drinks reception at The Malt House directly after the UKTram Summit. The Malt House is located next door to Austin Court and will be the perfect opportunity to network with other industry experts. A hot buffet will be served to all guests.

Hotels

Please find below a list of hotels that are within walking distance from the Summit venue. These are just a select few, there are plenty of other options. Click the links below to book your room now.
